MEMBERSHIP GUIDE

Dear SASC Member(s):

Thank you for your 20--/-- application for membership in the Club. It has been processed and you will find your membership card enclosed / attached.

New members may order name-tags at their own expense from: -from: Metaline Graphics, P.O. Box 68, 65 Hwy 3, Hubbards, NS B0J 1T0 or via e-mail at artwork@metalinegraphics.com or call (902) 857-9109. If you are renewing your membership and want a new name tag, you may order one at your expense any time.

1. SASC Membership (skiing) cards are NOT lift tickets.
2. Each day you visit a SASC participating ski hill to ski, you must sign the SASC Ski Day Register and accurately and legibly record your SASC membership number to get a lift ticket for the day. You may be required to show proof of your membership card and Photo ID when signing the day book.
3. These SASC membership cards are valid for the ski season, typically from December to April.
4. A Social SASC membership does NOT entitle you to skiing privileges and you should NOT sign the SASC Ski Day Register when visiting the ski hill.
5. Your skiing membership card is NOT transferable.

In the event of a request for a refund:

The skiing membership, minus the social membership amount, will be refunded in the event of an injury or illness that prevents the Member from participation in skiing. The request for a refund must be in writing outlining the circumstances, enclosing the skiing membership card to be received by the Registrar, Mary Drake (Box 3076, Tantallon, NS B4Z 4G9) by January 15. Due to our agreement with the ski hills no refunds can be accepted after this date.

Check out the Club's website at www.skiatlanticseniorsclub.ca for information on participating ski hills, trips and much more. Go for SNOW!

Sincerely,

SASC President

SKI HILL- SKI DAY REGISTER PROCEDURES, 20--/20-- Season

Daily Ski Hill Procedures

- Number the pages in the register in sequence
- Keep the register in date order- beginning with the first date the ski hill is open and SASC members have signed in (Ski dates should be in sequence except for closed days or days where there are no ski visits by SASC members)
- Have SASC members date, print and sign their name and ski membership card numbers Legibly
- Ski passes are digitally prepared indicating a unique number, name and SASC Logo and the numbers should be five digits within the number series authorized by SASC for this season starting at 50001 (will be a unique series each year).
- Those issuing lift tickets should require SASC members to show their ski membership (skiing) card when issuing lift tickets and ensure that each member properly registers in the Ski Day Register. Photo ID may be requested as deemed necessary by the hill.
- Review the Ski Day register to see that it is kept in order and that page and YTD totals are recorded on a daily basis

End of Season Procedures to be carried out by the Ski Hill

- Review the Ski Day Register sign-up sheets for errors or omissions
- Double check the authenticity of entries and the accuracy of page and YTD totals of SASC visits.
- Sign and date the final page and submit the entire season's sign-up sheets to the SASC Hill Director for final audit and processing by SASC

SKI HILL - SKI DAY REGISTER PROCEDURES
YEAR END REVIEW BY SASC SKI HILL DIRECTORS

The procedures noted below are intended as a review guide and are considered to be the minimum tests undertaken by the SASC Ski Hill Director. The discretion is left with the Ski Hill Director to increase the tests if errors and omissions are found that warrant an extended review. The overall review is intended to be one of reasonability and a good start would be to review all pages of the Ski Hill Register for obvious errors or omissions including the following tests:

- Check to see that all ski pass numbers are 5 digits and within the authorized sequence which starts at 50001
- Check to see that all ski days are reported (ski dates should be in sequence except for closed days or no ski visits)
- Check to see that pages are numbered and ski day dates are in sequence

Further tests to be undertaken:

- 1) On a random basis (e.g.; 4 sign in on the first page and every 4 pages thereafter) verify ski pass numbers and names against the SASC 20--/20-- membership list.
- 2) Check that the total # of ski visits per each page of the Ski Hill Register and the YTD totals are accurate.
- 3) Follow up anomalies or errors with the Ski Hill
- 4) Initial each page of the register to indicate your concurrence with page details, totals, etc.
- 5) Forward the entire register to me for processing with any comments you may wish to add or Email the total visits to me and bring the registers to the next Board meeting.

SKI ATLANTIC SENIORS' CLUB
CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

Definition:

In order to protect the legal interests and the right to privacy of our members and of our association -- the Ski Atlantic seniors' Club - the following policy on Confidentiality will become part of our constitution.

Policy:

1.0 All matters and information concerning any of our members are considered to be confidential and privileged and must not be transmitted to any other person or organization outside the Ski Atlantic Seniors' Club.

1.1 Any misuse of information is to be regarded as a serious offence and liable to legal or discipline action up to and including suspension and /or dismissal from the Association / Board

1.2 All individuals associated with the Ski Atlantic Seniors' Club will be advised of this policy.

The motion to approve this policy was passed by the Board of the SASC at its April 30, 2015 meeting and ratified by the members attending the 2015 Annual General Meeting of the Ski Atlantic Seniors' Club

SKI ATLANTIC SENIORS' CLUB
CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Definition:

A Conflict of Interest is any situation in which a member of the Board of the Ski Atlantic Seniors' Club has a private or personal interest sufficient to appear to influence the objective exercise of his or her official duties as a member of the Board of the Ski Atlantic Seniors' Club.

Purpose:

The objective of a Conflict of Interest Policy is to minimize the possibility of conflicts arising between the private interests of Directors and the duties of the Directors to the Association –Ski Atlantic Seniors' Club --and to provide for the resolution of conflicts should they arise.

Policy:

In their roles within the organization Board Members may be placed in a Conflict of Interest between their governance responsibilities and other commitments or obligations. When this occurs, a Board member who finds him or herself in a Conflict situation must act according to the following principles:

1. A Director shall not take advantage of or benefit from information that is obtained in the course of his or her duties and responsibilities as a Director and that is generally not known by the public.
2. A Director must disclose at a Board meeting the nature and extent of his or her interest in any actual or proposed contract or other agreements to which the ski Atlantic Seniors' Club is or may become a party.
3. Where a potential conflict situation exists, the Director involved must refrain from influencing the decision even to the extent of withdrawing from the meeting and certainly from voting.
4. Board members are trustees of the assets of the association and at all times in their deliberations must act on behalf of all the stakeholders of the Ski Atlantic Seniors Club.
